

NEW DIRECTORS

2023—2024

Fran Hendricks

Fran served over 33 years in the Air Force and retired as a Brigadier General. His assignments include 96th Air Base Wing and Installation Commander at Eglin AFB. Other assignments included Commander, Army and Air Force Exchange Service—the nation’s 42nd largest retailer with $10 Billion in annual sales; Executive Officer to the Commander, Air Education and Training Command; Senior Military Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force; and Study Director, Sierra Bravo, at the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency where he led a Secretary of the Air Force-directed study focused on designing “The air base of the future”.

After military service, Fran returned to his alma mater, Mansfield University, as its president. As president he championed efforts to decrease student debt and ensure student success by freezing student tuition; freezing dorm charges; and securing funding for merit scholarships. He retired to Florida where he remains active on numerous boards and foundations. He presently serves as the 54th president of the Northwest Florida Military Officer Association; Vice President of the Air Force Armament Museum Foundation; Vice Chairman, Emerald Coast Military Affairs Council; Vice President for Scholarship, Eglin Chapter of the Air and Space Forces Association; and is a proud member of the Northwest Florida State College Raider Club.

He has been married to the love of his life, Connie for 37 years. They have two adult children, Andrew and Stephanie. And two rescue dogs...Watson and May.

NEW DIRECTORS 2023—2024

Wendy McAdams Dorr

Wendy began her career in Atlanta with Price Waterhouse after earning her Accounting degree from the University of Georgia. She then found her passion in the foodservice industry and spent over 20 years focused in Accounting, Finance, Supply Chain Management and Logistics for companies such as Chick-fil-A, Atlanta Bread Company, Arby's, and Associated Concepts Group (ACG).

Wendy served as the Senior Vice President of Supply Chain Management for Arby's where she led a team that managed the distribution network, logistics programs, forecasting, and technology initiatives for their 3,600 locations with over $1B in annual spend.

Wendy founded ACG, a Sun Capital Partners Company, where she also served as the Chief Operating Officer. She worked with Sun Capitals' nine restaurant concept CEOs, spearheading strategic sourcing initiatives for 2,100 locations with over $750M in spend to include concepts such as Captain D's, Johnny Rockets, Boston Market and Bar Louie.

Wendy also served on the Board of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals in Atlanta and continues to provide supply chain and event management consulting in the industry.

Wendy and her husband Jeff relocated to Shalimar in 2014. Her husband Jeff is the President of ArrowStream, a supply chain technology company, and their daughter Caitlin is a Senior Manager of Supply Chain for Zaxby's in Georgia. Wendy and Jeff are actively involved in the community and support a variety of community programs. Wendy has served as a past board member for IMPACT 100 of Northwest Florida and served as the Accounting & Operations Manager for the NWFSC Foundation.

NEW DIRECTORS 2023—2024

Zach McCluskey

Zach is the CEO of HCA Florida Fort Walton—Destin Hospital, a role he took in December, 2021. In this role, he oversees the growing 267-bed hospital that has served the Okaloosa, Walton and Santa Rosa counties for more than 45 years.

A native of Richmond, Virginia, Zach has more than 15 years of health care leadership experience within the HCA Healthcare system following a career in critical care nursing.

Zach most recently served as Chief Executive Officer of HCA Healthcare’s Johnston-Willis Hospital, a 292-bed facility and campus of CJW Medical Center in Richmond, Virginia. The hospital continues to receive high marks including being awarded The Joint Commission’s Gold Seal of Approval and the first hospital in the U.S. to receive The Joint Commission Gold Seal Certificate of Distinction for Brain Tumor care.

Prior to his tenure at Johnston-Willis Hospital, Zach was CEO at Parham Doctors’ Hospital, where under his leadership the hospital became a top five percent orthopedic hospital in the nation designated by Healthgrades and received total shoulder, hip and knee certifications from the Joint Commission. Prior to his work at Parham, Zach served as Chief Operating Officer at StoneCrest Medical Center in Nashville and associate administrator at HCA Healthcare’s CJW Hospital.

Zach received his Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a Master of Health Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University. He is also a fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives.

NEW DIRECTORS

2023—2024

Tim McCool

Tim is the Co-Founder and Co-Owner of 3rd Planet Brewing, a brewery winning awards and recognition locally, state-wide, and nationally since 2015. He also Co-Owns two local Crumbl Cookie stores. Tim works full-time as a Subject Matter Expert for Modern Technology Solutions Inc, a DoD contractor. Tim was commissioned in 1984 and served 20-years in the USAF before retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel. Tim currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Niceville Chamber of Commerce (CoC) and is a member of the Destin CoC. He is an active member of Holy Name of Jesus (HNJ) Catholic Church volunteering over the years in various capacities from teaching religious education to serving on the Parish Council and a member of the HNJ Knights of Columbus.

Tim earned his BS in electrical engineering (EE) from Southern Illinois University and his MSEE from the Air Force Institute of Technology. Since 2006, Tim continues to teach part of a week-long course at Georgia Technology Research Institute several times a year.

Tim is married to the former Sue Sax from Mascoutah, Illinois. They are celebrating 40-years of marriage this year and have 3 daughters, 3 sons-in-law and 8 grandchildren that all live in Niceville FL. Tim's hobbies include biking, hiking, kayaking and a passion for cooking. Sunday is usually reserved for "family-day" consisting of the family attending church followed in the late afternoon with a gathering at the McCool's for Tim's home cooked ever-changing "family-meal".

NEW DIRECTORS

2023—2024

Neko Stubblefield

Ms. Stubblefield serves as the Vice President of Membership and Community Development for Eglin Federal Credit Union (EFCU). Neko oversees all membership growth, community and financial education efforts across the footprint of the Credit Union which currently spans four counties in Florida and Alabama.

Neko is a graduate of Faulkner University's Harris College of Business and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree with an emphasis in Corporate Finance. Ms. Stubblefield has been involved in the financial services industry for over 30 years and has been honored with various career achievement awards for her contributions.

Neko is very active in our community and is a member of five local Chambers of Commerce. In the Crestview Area Chamber of Commerce, Neko served as the 2021-2022 Chairman of the Board and current Executive Board member. Ms. Stubblefield also serves as an Executive Board Member of the One Okaloosa Economic Development Council and the White-Wilson Community Foundation and current Board Member for Rocky Bayou Christian School and the Okaloosa Public Schools Foundation.

Ms. Stubblefield has been appointed Civic Leader for the Air Force Materiel Command (AFMC) representing the 96th Test Wing at Eglin AFB. She also serves as the current Honorary Commander for the 1st Special Operations Wing at Hurlburt Field under the leadership of Wing Commander Colonel Allison Black and the Honorary Commander for the 919th Special Operations Wing at Duke Field under the leadership of Colonel Jason Grandy. Neko serves on three Military Affairs Committees (MACs) through the Greater Fort Walton Beach, Niceville-Valparaiso and Crestview Area Chambers of Commerce.

Neko is actively involved in serving her community through volunteer efforts with the Crestview Mentor Program, Crestview Youth Coalition, Habitat for Humanity, American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, Boys and Girls Club of the Emerald Coast, Okaloosa Saves and multiple community advisory boards.

In her spare time, Neko enjoys spending time with her children, Joshua and Madison and credits her role as "Mother in Chief" as her most valued role to date!

