John Simonton reported the following information from the Sheriff's Office:

- John will be attending a meeting at 10:00 a.m., to discuss implementing the Medication Assisted Recovery Program (MAR) that he had reported on during the May Public Safety Meeting. This program would be a collaborative effort with Sinnissippi, Probation (drug court), KSB Hospital, the Lee County Health Department, and the Sheriff's Office to help inmates with substance abuse disorders get medication and behavior health counseling. The program would also help them find treatment and resources once they were released. The program starts with an $18,000 grant once the application is approved. From there commissary funding can be used to continue or sustain the program for as long as possible.
- The two (2) deputies hired late last year as lateral transfers did not work out.
- The office is short one (1) patrol deputy due to a National Guard deployment. This deputy will be back near the end of December.
- The office has incurred several long term medical issues.
- Two officers will be graduating from the Police Academy on August 11, 2022, that will be go into patrol following completion of the FTO program.
- Another officer is selected for patrol that will be starting the Police Academy in mid August.
