STATE OF THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM
3 May 2024

1. Women's Faculty Working Group update

2. Administrative/Professional faculty compensation model progress

3. Innovation Programming progress

4. Peay Academic Excellence update

5. AY 23-24 highlights (attachment)

Selected AY23-24 Activities

- SACSCOC Accreditation Submissions and Reviews
    - 2025 Submission to seek reaffirmation
    - 2026 Review
    - 2027 Certification
- Preparing Fall 2024 ABET and AACSB accreditation reviews
- Review of academic standards
- Implemented track options in the Computer and Information Sciences curriculum (Theory, Cyber, IT)
- Fully staffed Miller Academic Center and Registrar
- Implemented new curriculum for non-commissioning cadets' leadership lab
- Developing additional academic support services for at-risk students
- Innovation Programming: Summer Undergraduate Entrepreneurship Program
- Constitution Event: The Past and Future of Affirmative Action, 4 April
- Undergraduate Research Symposium: 3 April, 75+ cadet presentations
- Articulation Agreement with DEVCOM/Army Research Lab

AY23-24 Activities, cont'd

- Build-out of CIS cadet research project lab – 3rd floor Preston Library

- Developing 4+1 master's degree programs with George Mason University

- New Faculty onboarding – success in a military environment

- Review of academic advising for best practices

- Peay Academic Excellence build-out

- Women's Faculty Working Group

- Faculty Advisory Council

- Olmsted Foundation Trip – Vietnam, 8 cadets, 4 faculty/staff

- San Remo Law of Armed Conflict Symposium/Debate, 6 cadets, 1 faculty (most awards amongst 25 participating military institutions)

- Mir-Yam Institute: Trip to Poland (not Israel), 20 cadets, 2 faculty/staff

- Institute Honors: 31 Honors Presentations