What interests you about position you are seeking appointment for?

As the Executive Director of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce and Main Street, community/regional and economic development are key initiative for me. Helping develop a mass transit district will assist in these initiatives by hopefully filling a huge gap in transportation needs throughout the area.

Brief description/account of your professional journey:

After completion of the Paramedic Program at SVCC, I worked on an ambulance service while looking to start a career in public safety. An opportunity the join CSX railroad as a Regional Safety Coordinator and Train Conductor took me on a different path. After some years on the railroad and realizing it was not conducive for my family life, I became an entrepreneur and co-started to Sauk Valley businesses. One being Frosted Spoon and the other Englund Brothers Construction. Now, being the Executive Director of DCCMS, my professional life is devoted to helping make Dixon, Lee County, and the Sauk Valley Region the very best it can be.

Professional specialties and/or relevant areas of expertise:

Collaborating with many organizations and government bodies across the State and region and being on a multitude of boards, as the ED of DCCMS, brings experience and perspective to the MTD governing board.

Academic honors and significant accomplishments:

After completing the Paramedic Program at SVCC, working as an EMT, being a Regional Safety Coordinator, starting and operating two businesses, being on numerous boards, becoming the Executive Director of DCCMS, collaborating on many significant initiatives throughout Dixon and the Sauk Valley, being the best husband and father of 4 I can be continues to be the best honor of all.
