The county is also in contract negotiations with the Illinois Fraternal Order of Police prior to the expiration of the contract on November 30th. The next scheduled meeting between the parties is on September 21st.

As far as notable calls for the month of August, the sheriff's office received a report of a missing suicidal subject on August 15th from the West Brooklyn area. The Richardson Wildlife Foundation is in close proximity to the residence of the individual. The sheriff's office continues to provide due diligence with this investigation.
