My biological mother filed false accusations to DCYF. There was an investigation and all was unfounded by dcyf. I do have a letter from them thanking myself and my partner for our corporation and stating it was indeed unfounded. Unfortunately this letter is not in digital format. I will try to convert it and send it to you. After this my mother was furious and filed the same exact accusations in the court of law. Unfortunately the judge granted immediate temporary custody to my mother and her husband with religious and medical upbringing of my children in a temporary order with no prior hearing. Myself and partner were told by another family member who had spoken to a sheriff that we did not need to comply if we felt our children were going to an unsafe environment. I with no doubt know my mother is not a loving person and for many reasons I do not feel like it was a safe or healthy environment. Nor did I understand was my parental rights were taken on a temporary order. My youngest was still breast feeding with intent of self weaning. I am just a mother trying to keep her children safe and with miss guided information thought I was within my human rights to do so. Unfortunately it has now labeled me until I can expunge it from record. I had never been arrested prior to this I have never even gotten a parking or speeding ticket. Again I was given miss guided information and at the time thought I was making the best lawful choice for my children.

There are no ongoing proceedings or classes.
Thank you.
