

SACSCOC

Reaffirmation of Accreditation

Class of 2026

Matt Smith
Assistant Provost for Institutional Accreditation & Effectiveness

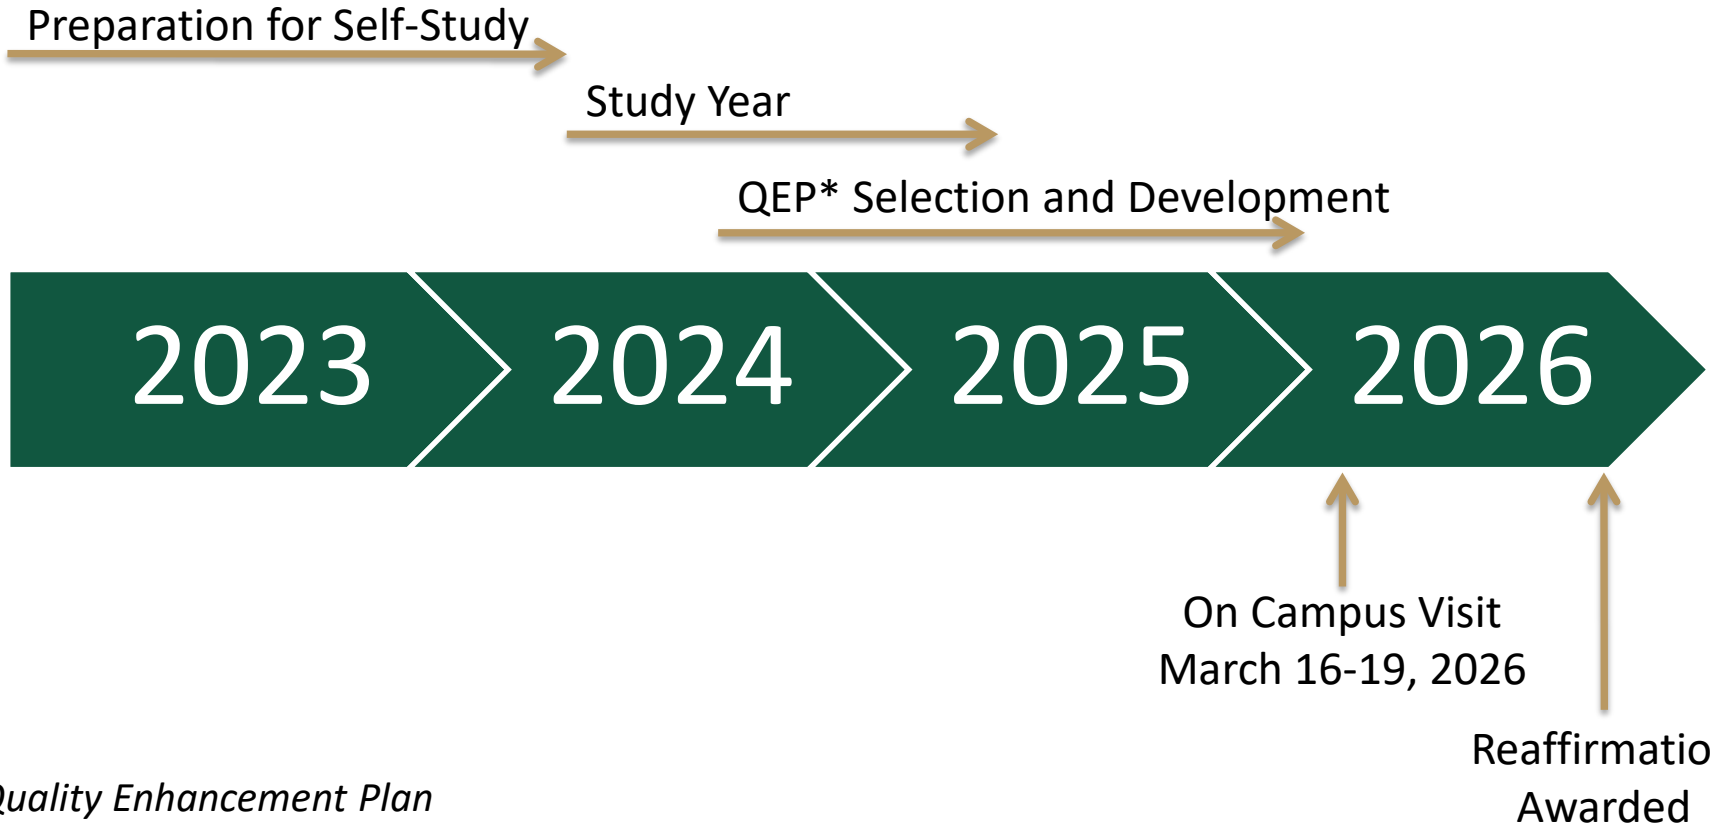

SACSCOC's Principles of Accreditation require a comprehensive, university-wide review

72

total standards that span these areas

1. Integrity
2. Mission
3. Basic Eligibility
4. Governing Board
5. Administration
6. Faculty
7. Institutional Planning & Effectiveness
8. Student Achievement
9. Educational Program Structure and Content
10. Educational Policies, Procedures, and Practices
11. Library and Learning/Information Resources
12. Academic and Student Support Services
13. Financial and Physical Resources
14. Institutional Representation to Others

Timeline

*Quality Enhancement Plan

Current Status

- Engagement of Campus Partners
- Appointment of the Reaffirmation Leadership Team
- Initiation of the Self-Study Process
- Initiation of the QEP Selection Process

Ongoing QEP Topic Selection Process

Sept – Oct '23

- Announcement of process
- Solicit topic proposals; due Oct 20

Nov – Dec '23

- Proposal review begins
- Finalists announced Fall '23 semester

February '24

- Finalists present to campus community
- Campus feedback

Mid-late March '24

- Evaluate finalists and feedback received

Mid-Late April '24

- Final input
- Announce QEP topic selection

Reaffirmation and the Board of Visitors

| SACSCOC Standard | Description |
|------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 4.1 (Core Requirement) | Governing Board Characteristics |
| 4.2.a | Mission Review |
| 4.2.b | Board/Administrative Distinction |
| 4.2.c | CEO Evaluation/Selection |
| 4.2.d | Conflict of Interest |
| 4.2.e | Board Dismissal |
| 4.2.f | External Influence |
| 4.2.g | Board Self-Evaluation |
| 4.3* | Multi-level governance |

N/A to W&M*

Reaffirmation and the Board of Visitors

- Regular updates at Board meetings
 - Opportunities for your engagement and perspectives
- March 16-19, 2026
 - On-Site Review Committee will engage with a small group of Board members over lunch during the visit.