Explanation of Legal Proceedings/Actions

The applicant, Wal-Mart Stores East, LP [or, when applicable, Sam's East Inc.], and its affiliated and related entities including, but not limited to, Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and their ultimate parent corporation, Walmart Inc. (collectively, "Walmart" or the "Applicant") understand this question to relate to licenses, registrations and penalties applicable to the manufacture or distribution of pharmaceuticals, or the practice of pharmacy.

Walmart operates nearly five thousand, eight hundred retail pharmacies across the United States. In connection with its retail pharmacy operations, Walmart applies for and holds numerous permits, licenses, and certificates of authority with federal, state and local agencies, including state professional licenses as well as state and federal controlled substance registrations some of which have been subjected to discipline as described below.

The Applicant is a corporation that is wholly owned by the publicly traded company known as Walmart Inc. Neither Walmart Inc. nor Sam's East, Inc., or any related or affiliated entity has ever been indicted, nor are there any pending indictments against Walmart or any related or affiliated entity or any of the individuals named in this application.

From time to time, Walmart has had a permit, license or registration subjected to discipline. No such disciplinary actions, however, have ever had a material adverse effect on Walmart's ability to continue to provide pharmacy services in any state where Wal-Mart holds such permits, licenses or registrations, regardless of the type of permit, license or registration.

To the best of the Walmart's knowledge and attached to this application as Exhibit 2, is a chart that provides a summary of those final actions that have been taken against Walmart, Walmart's Pharmacy Facilities' and Walmart's employed licensed pharmacy professionals' respective registrations and licenses for the last two (2) years. Exhibit 2 summarizes the nature of the action taken; the regulatory authority; the reason for the action; and the resolution of the action with the regulatory authority.

Explanation of Legal Proceedings/Actions

The applicant, Wal-Mart Stores East, LP [or, when applicable, Sam's East Inc.], and its affiliated and related entities including, but not limited to, Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and their ultimate parent corporation, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (collectively, "Wal-Mart" or the "Applicant") understand this question to relate to licenses, registrations and penalties applicable to the manufacture or distribution of pharmaceuticals, or the practice of pharmacy.

Wal-Mart operates over six thousand retail pharmacies across the United States. In connection with its retail pharmacy operations, Wal-Mart applies for and holds numerous permits, licenses, and certificates of authority with federal, state and local agencies, including state professional licenses as well as state and federal controlled substance registrations some of which have been subjected to discipline as described below.
