C. ACTION ITEMS

1. Work Orders Review and Approval

a. 2022-001 - Public Defender's request for a sink

The committee briefly discussed the Public Defender's request for a sink in their office. Greg Saunders had a contractor look at the area and the estimate to complete the project was roughly $20,000. Installing the pipes and drains in that area would include core drilling the floor above the space and running sewer lines under a supporting steel beam. The cost of the project was not included in the proposed 2023 budget that is scheduled to be voted on during the November 22, 2022, County Board meeting.

Motion to table the Public Defender's request for a sink. Moved by Dave Bally. Second by Jack Skrogstad. Motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

b. 2022-002 - New Carpet in Judges Hallway, Jury and Conference Rooms

c. 2022-003 - Judges Carpeting and Flooring, JDA Courtroom, Conference Room, and Foyer

The committee discussed new carpeting and flooring in the Judge's area in the New Courts Building.

Motion to approve the work orders for flooring. Moved by Dave Bally. Second by Marvin Williams. Motion approved by voice vote.

VIII. Zoning

A. Procedures, Restructuring, and Enforcement Updates - Board Member Jack Skrogstad

Jack Skrogstad reported that during their recent meeting, Dee Duffy, Alice Henkel, and Wendy Ryerson agreed that the Zoning Department section of the County website needed to be restructured and updated. Wendy took on the time-consuming task of restructuring the information. As a result, Jack reported that the work resulted in a user-friendly format that was much easier to navigate.

B. Report

Dee Duffy walked the committee through the report that she submitted and was present to answer any questions. The full report will be included in the November County Board agenda.
