Bob,

I wanted to get this out earlier, but I had some surgery done.

I am asking this to be added to the agenda tonight.

I am still waiting for proper procedures to be followed regarding the open Commissioners seat.

What is the public to understand between now and December 31st, 2020 regarding an open Commissioners seat?

What is now the protocol? Will Protocol be followed?

Will the public wake up one morning and find another appointment has been made? (leaving the public out of government again)

Will there be an application process? A separate committee to interview applicants as done before.

Will there be a recommendation from said committee to the City Council who they suggest?

Why wasn't this committee used as this last time as before?

What should the public expect?

Answering these questions tonight will bring clarity and transparency.
