

John H. Augustine, Managing Director, leads the Barclays Higher Education, Academic Medical Center and Non-Profit Finance Group. Mr. Augustine's approach to investment banking is characterized by ongoing service and support across a broad spectrum of financial matters. A Fulbright scholar at Oxford University, Mr. Augustine holds a B.A. from Wheaton College (IL), a Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota, and an MBA in finance from Yale.

Mr. Augustine previously served on the CSU Foundation Board of Governors from 2004 to 2013, including as treasurer for nine years. In his role at Barclays, he advises the California State University in its systemwide revenue bond sales.