(c) The availability of licensure by endorsement under this part shall not supersede, replace, or otherwise affect the applicability or availability of any profession-specific compacts.

Plc 313.03 Applications for Licensure by Endorsement. An applicant for licensure by endorsement shall:

(a) Submit the following to the licensing bureau using the portal available via www.oplc.nh.gov or, if the portal is not yet available or if submitting the application via the portal is not practicable for the applicant, by mailing a paper application to the address specified in Plc 102.03:

- (1) A completed “Universal Application for Initial License”, dated April 2024, that provides the information required by Plc 304.03 and is signed and attested to as specified in Plc 304.05;
- (2) The documentation specified in Plc 304.04 and Plc 313.05; and
- (3) The applicable application processing and licensing fee specified in Plc 1002, unless Plc 304.02(a) relative to exempting active military and military spouses from paying application processing and licensing fees applies; and

(b) If applicable law requires a criminal records check, complete the process established by applicable law and the NHDOS for requesting a criminal records check, accessible via the NHDOS website at <https://www.nh.gov/safety/> or directly at <https://services.dos.nh.gov/chri/cpo/>, including paying any required fee and directing that the results be sent to the licensing bureau, provided that proof of the applicant’s military security clearance may be provided in lieu of the criminal background check if allowed by applicable law.

Plc 313.04 Information Required for Initial License Application. The applicant shall identify the profession for which the application is being filed and then provide the information specified in Plc 303.04 for individuals and all applicants.

Plc 313.05 Documentation Required for Initial License Application. At the time an applicant for a license by endorsement submits a completed license application, the applicant shall submit, or arrange for the licensing bureau to receive:

(a) Primary source verification from the jurisdiction identified pursuant to Plc 304.03(d), such as a print-out or screen capture of the licensing board’s portal showing that the individual is licensed to practice and that the license is in good standing;

(b) If the applicant is seeking licensure as active military or as a military spouse, proof of service status and, if applicable, proof of marriage as specified in Plc 304.04(e) and (f); and

(c) If applicable, the evaluation of foreign credentials required by Plc 313.12.

Plc 313.06 Processing of Applications for a License by Endorsement; Decisions.

(a) The executive director shall grant a license to each applicant who is licensed in another jurisdiction in the profession for which application is being made and who provides all items specified in Plc 313.03, including without limitation proof that the applicant holds an license in good standing in another jurisdiction based on requirements that are substantially similar to New Hampshire’s.

(b) If the information submitted by the applicant shows that the applicant does not qualify for a license by endorsement, the executive director shall deny the application.

(c) If the information submitted by the applicant shows that the applicant qualifies for a license by endorsement but applicable law requires a criminal background check and the OPLC has not yet received the results from the NHDOS, the executive director shall issue a provisional license that allows the applicant to practice in New Hampshire pending the results of the criminal background check.

(d) If a provisional license is issued pursuant to (c), above, then when the results of the criminal background check are received, the executive director shall:

- (1) Issue a regular license to the provisional licensee, if the results do not show grounds to deny the application; or
- (2) If the results do show grounds to deny the application, notify the licensee in writing and refer the matter to the applicable board for a hearing.

(e) If the information submitted by the applicant is insufficient to allow the executive director to issue or deny a license by endorsement, the executive director shall request the applicant to provide the additional information needed to allow a determination to be made.

(f) Denial of a license by endorsement under this part shall not automatically result in denial of a regular license should the individual choose to apply under Plc 304.

Plc 313.07 License by Endorsement: Issuance. Each license by endorsement issued under this part shall specify:

- (a) The name of the licensee;
- (b) The profession in which the licensee is authorized to practice;
- (c) The expiration date of the license; and
- (d) The license number.

Plc 313.08 Duration of License by Endorsement.

(a) A license issued pursuant to this part that is not provisional shall be valid for 2 years from the date of issuance, subject to the following:

- (1) Timely and complete application for license renewal by eligible applicants shall continue the validity of the licenses being renewed until final action has been taken on the renewal application; and
- (2) Suspension or revocation of the license pursuant to Plc 311 or other applicable law shall cause the license to not be valid unless and until it is reinstated as provided in Plc 300.

(b) A provisional license shall expire upon the approval of full licensure, or if full licensure by endorsement is denied, as of the date of:

- (1) The final decision of the board if no appeal is taken; or
- (2) The final decision in the last appeal taken.

Plc 313.09 Obligations of Licensees by Endorsement. Upon issuance of a license or provisional license under this part, the licensee shall become subject to:

- (a) Plc 307 relative to licensee obligations;
- (b) Plc 308 relative to license renewal;
- (c) Plc 309 through Plc 312; and
- (d) The regulatory authority of the applicable board.

Plc 313.10 Definitions Related to Substantially Similar Requirements. For purposes of establishing substantially similar requirements, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “Current requirements” means the requirements that are in place in the licensing jurisdiction for obtaining a license by substantive qualification as of the date an application for a license by endorsement is filed in New Hampshire;

(b) “Foreign jurisdiction” means a jurisdiction that is outside of any state of the U.S., the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a trust territory of the Pacific Islands, or any territory or possession of the U.S.;

(c) “License by substantive qualification” means the requirements for obtaining a license by submitting primary source verification of meeting applicable education, training, and examination requirements of the licensing jurisdiction. The term does not include any license obtained by merely or primarily showing proof of licensure in a different jurisdiction, such as for endorsement or reciprocity;

(d) “Licensing jurisdiction” means the jurisdiction that issued the license that the applicant believes is based on substantially similar requirements, which shall include county, county-equivalent, or municipal government if such licenses are not issued by the state in which the county, county-equivalent, or municipality is located; and

(e) “State-approved” means approved by the licensing jurisdiction, whether a state, territory, county, county-equivalent, or municipality.

Plc 313.11 Waivers of Stated Criteria. An individual who obtained licensure in a jurisdiction whose current requirements do not meet the criteria listed in the applicable section of Plc 313.13 through Plc 313.57, but who believes that the individual should be qualified based on a combination of education, training, and actual work experience as a licensed professional, may request a waiver of the stated criteria pursuant to Plc 211.

Plc 313.12 Evaluation of Foreign Credentials Required.

(a) Except as provided in (b), below, any applicant who is seeking licensure by endorsement based on a license issued by a foreign jurisdiction shall submit with the application an evaluation of the applicant’s credentials by a member of:

(1) The National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), available at <https://www.naces.org/>; or

(2) The Association of International Credentials Evaluators (AICE), available at <https://aice-eval.org/>.

(b) Any applicant for a license by endorsement to practice physical therapy based on a license obtained in a foreign jurisdiction shall submit with the application an evaluation of the applicant’s credentials by the Foreign Credentialing Commission on Physical Therapy (FCCPT), available at <https://www.fccpt.org/>.
