Resource Room Open

Will be opening in late May or June

Resources Room

Staff to return (staggered) in mid - late June. Still evaluating how/when to re-open Resource Room.

Career Advising will still be done remotely but the resource room will be available for a limited number of individuals.

This is a projected date. Staff days will be staggered, all activity will be by appointment

The Center is open daily from 8:00 to 4:30. The OhioMeansJobs Center/Cincinnati-Hamilton County plans to reopen the Resource Room when the libraries in Hamilton County reopen, or when prompted by specific guidance from the Governor's mandates, our local County Health Department and the broader Hamilton County Re-Opening Readiness Plan.

Will be opening in late May or June

Open, but no contact with customers

Planning stage, workshops online - will be appointment only-June

Staff to return (staggered) in mid - late June. Still evaluating how/when to re-open Resource Room.

We are planning to be open after the July 4 holiday weekend. It will be by appointment for one-on-one services and limited numbers of public having access to the Resource Room. Will continue virtual services in place too, since late March.

Will open in June

Resource room open by appointment only

C/W's will continue working remotely, Resource Room will open sometime in June with limited customer access by appointment only

The OMJ Lobby is tentatively set to reopen to the public on June 22, 2020 OhioMeansjobs (OMJ) offering lobby hours to the public beginning on June 22, 2020. Limited hours, limited services and one-on-one appointments for specific services.

Still in planning process. Working Remotely through June. Soft re-opening after 4th of July by Appt only
