

2024 Agreement Earn Code Recommendation Table

Agreement	New Code	Earn Code Description	Staff Recommendation	Compensation Earnable for Current Employees as of 1/1/2013	Pensionable Compensation for New Employees as of 1/1/2013
Management Resolution Special Pay Provision Section 15.2.a To address the extraordinary number of additional hours worked during election cycles, one Assistant Department Head and one Regulatory Compliance Manager III in the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor's-Elections Department who are assigned over Elections may receive a temporary pay increase for up to six pay periods leading to and including the pay period of an election, and two pay periods following the election as follows: 15% for Presidential Elections. These temporary pay increases cannot be combined and the incumbents will receive the higher percentage increase if there are multiple elections concurrently (example: the authorized incumbents will receive 15% for a countywide election and local district election occurring at the same time.	SDP	Special Duty Presidential Election 15%	This is overtime "to address the extraordinary number of addtl hours".	N	N
Management Resolution Special Pay Provision Section 15.2.b To address the extraordinary number of additional hours worked during election cycles, one Assistant Department Head and one Regulatory Compliance Manager III in the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor's-Elections Department who are assigned over Elections may receive a temporary pay increase for up to six pay periods leading to and including the pay period of an election, and two pay periods following the election as follows: 10% for Statewide/countywide Elections. These temporary pay increases cannot be combined and the incumbents will receive the higher percentage increase if there are multiple elections concurrently (example: the authorized incumbents will receive 10% for a countywide election and local district election occurring at the same time.	SDS	Special Duty State & County Elections 10%	This is overtime "to address the extraordinary number of addtl hours".	N	N
Management Resolution Special Pay Provision Section 15.2.c To address the extraordinary number of additional hours worked during election cycles, one Assistant Department Head and one Regulatory Compliance Manager III in the Clerk-Recorder-Assessor's-Elections Department who are assigned over Elections may receive a temporary pay increase for up to six pay periods leading to and including the pay period of an election, and two pay periods following the election as follows: 5% for Local District Elections. These temporary pay increases cannot be combined and the incumbents will receive the higher percentage increase if there are multiple elections concurrently (example: the authorized incumbents will receive 10% for a countywide election and local district election occurring at the same time.	SDL	Special Duty Local District Elections 5%	This is overtime "to address the extraordinary number of addtl hours".	N	N