To Whom It May Concern:

We are Teen Turf, located at 235 West Main Street in Amboy, Illinois. We are a 501 (c) (3) and receive money from United Way of Lee County as well as community donations. We do fund raising throughout the year. We have an After School Homework Program where we feed about 30 kids every day. For our Summer Program our Junior High children come from 9 am until 4 pm to volunteer in the community: planting and weeding in the community garden, doing roadside clean up, and helping with our Splash Camp that is theme based and is attended by kids from Pre School age to 4th grade. We provide breakfast bars for the morning and then lunch and snacks for the day. We also assist people that need furniture and clothing.

We are applying for funding under the American Rescue Plan Act. During Covid 19 the need to help people became even greater. Many families really struggled, and we were there to help. In 2020, we held a 24/7 day a week food/toiletries pantry in our foyer. In addition, our organization held a drive-thru food pantry for over 40 families.

We are requesting the funds to help purchase a vehicle enclosure for our Teen Turf van so we can use the garage to store donated furniture and bedding.

We are requesting $10,000.00 for the vehicle enclosure. If you have any other questions, don't hesitate to contact Eileen Piper at 815-440-8195 or 815-857-4800.

Thank you for your time and your consideration,

Eileen Piper
