The Community College of Aurora currently provides service within three counties: Adams, Arapahoe, and Denver. In conversation with the Commissioners of Adams County, it was agreed that together we would seek to strengthen ties that bond our partnership. Over the past several years, nearly 20% of CCA's students have called Adams County home, based on student records. Recently, Noel Bernal joined our community as the County Manager of Adams County. His experience, vision, support will provide critical to the future growth and impact of the Community College of Aurora.
