On behalf of SBCERS', Hamilton Lane approved a $10.0 million commitment to Lone Star Real Estate Fund VII, L.P.

Approach

- Targets distressed real estate and non-performing loans, where it can leverage the significant scale and capabilities of its global platform to execute transactions with limited competition
- Intends to opportunistically construct a diversified portfolio of 48 investments with equity checks between $54 to $477 million
- Aims to create value add opportunities at acquisition by targeting investments that include restructuring, repositioning, lease-ups, wholesale-to-retail, take privates, carve-outs, loan-to-own, insolvency procedures, REOs and deferred purchase obligations
- Anticipates focusing on distressed and operationally intensive properties with short lease durations and strong long-term growth fundamentals, which may include senior housing, lodging/hotel, and multifamily assets
- Expects to deploy approximately 50% of the Fund in North America, with the balance split equally between Europe and Japan. The General Partner expects a larger North American opportunity set over the next six to twelve months driven by the FDIC's sale of stressed/distressed commercial real estate portfolios previously held by failed regional banks

Key Features

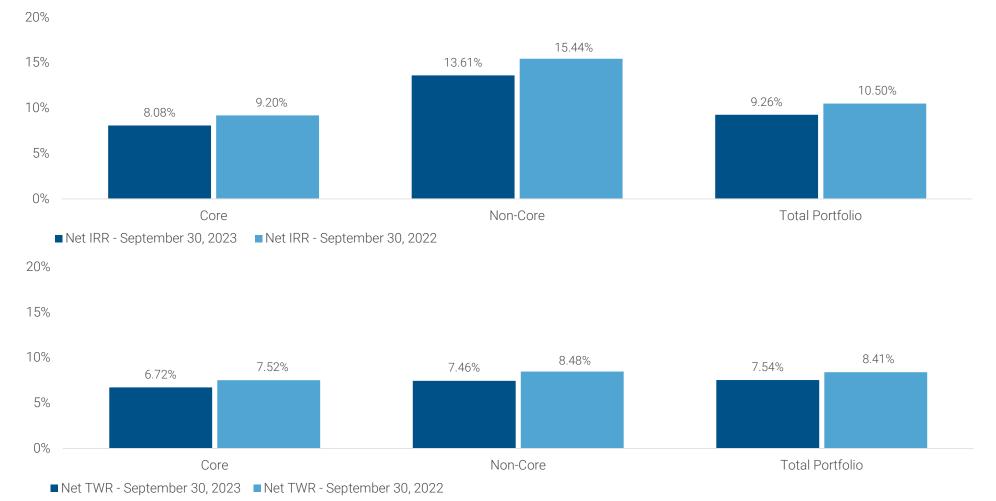

- Voting members of the investment committee average 34 years of overall experience and 15 years of tenure at Lone Star
- The broader Lone Star platform is strategically organized by region and is supported by groups across origination, fundraising, portfolio management, operations and legal
- Expects to leverage its operating partner, Hudson Advisors, to execute asset management initiatives for all investments, assist with underwriting, provide administrative and support services, and advise on liquidity timing
- Has invested through multiple market cycles and delivered an attractive overall track record through volatile macroeconomic conditions, such as those resulting from the GFC and COVID-19
- Lone Star had generated a 12.9% net IRR and 1.3x TVPI across its opportunistic real estate fund series, as of 3/31/2023
