(Feel free to include a separate page if desired.):

Amy White-Tanabe has served seniors in the healthcare arena for twenty-three years, sixteen of those years in upper management and recently transferred to a new line of work. She is now employed as the Otero County Administrator. She has skills in fiscal management, regulatory compliance, project management, policy writing, and problem solving.

Amy was the CEO and Co-Owner of Phoenix Management Inc. from 2014 – 2019 and was the Regional Director of Operations at Heritage Healthcare Management Services from 2007 - 2014.

Amy earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Gerontology from the University of Northern Colorado in 1995 and is a proud alum of the Rocky Ford Meloneers. She is a fourth-generation native of Otero County and her roots in the valley come with many connections that will aid her as a member of the Advisory Board. Her daughter is a recent graduate of Otero College which gives her additional insight and we are excited to have her come aboard.
