EXPLANATION:

CCCOOnline began using McGraw Hill digital content in its courses in 2016. McGraw Hill content is currently used in 5 CCCOnline courses. Digital content is advantageous to students because it costs less than textbooks, the content is available on the first day of class and is more engaging and accessible. The amount CCCOnline pays to McGraw Hill for use of its digital content is recouped through student digital content fees for these courses.

The current contract was signed in July 2018 and extended through June 30, 2023 with an option letter in February 2022. The contract includes the State’s option to extend it at the same rates and under the same terms for one-year periods not to exceed five years. CCCOnline was granted permission by the Colorado Office of the State Controller in March 2023 to extend the contract past five years due to the extenuating circumstances of the transition to Colorado Online@.

We recommend exercising this option and extending the contract for one year until June 30, 2024 to cover courses that remain with CCCOnline in FY24 during the transition to Colorado Online@.

Below outlines student enrollment and expenses in courses using McGraw Hill digital content.

| | Enrollments | Total |
|------------------|--------------------|------------------|
| FY19 Actual | 3,082 | $177,908 |
| FY20 Actual | 2,528 | $144,023 |

| FY22 Actual | 825 | $44,446 |
| FY23 Max. Amount | 2,528 | $144,023 |
| FY24 Max. Amount | 2,528 | $144,023 |

Staff also recommends that the Board delegate contract signature authority to the System Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration provided all State and Board processes are followed.
